

Vistage is an international organization of peer groups, for high performing business leaders, who meet regularly, to learn and improve themselves and their businesses.

Famiglia Wealth's CEO, @Jason M. Geisz, CFP®, was voted by his fellow members of Vistage group CE38, for the 2023 Soaring Eagle Award.

Individuals honored as the Soaring Eagle Award, encompass many great qualities, including: giving back to the community, sharing wisdom, insight, and compassion, from personal experience, and being open to giving and receiving feedback.

Some comments from his fellow members include:

"Jason always has the best interest of the group at heart. He has a caring and servant mindset in all of the decision he makes for his company and our group"

"Jason shares openly but with empathy and compassion while still being honest and straightforward"

"He maintains connections with members outside of the monthly meetings and is never afraid to motivate someone by asking a difficult question. Jason is the type of member I was hoping to connect with when joining Vistage and am thrilled to have him as part of our group and on my "accountability team"

Let's all congratulate @Jason M. Geisz, CFP®, for achieving the 2023 Vistage Soaring Eagle Award!
